On every Wednesday afternoon is an exercise in Declamation, in which all the classes take part. Seniors deliver original essays.—On Wednesday evening the Literary Societies are allowed to meet for exercises appointed according to their own laws, under the sanction of the Faculty.

On every Thursday afternoon is a Bible Exercise in the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior Classes. For the Freshman year, the recitations are in the Historical Books of the Bible; for the Sophomore year in the Prophetical Books and the Greek Testament; and for the Junior year in the Doctrinal Books. These recitations are accompanied by Familiar Lectures from the Instructors.—On every Thursday evening is a Religious Service, by the President or one of the Professors, at which all the students are invited to attend.

LECTURES.

1. On Chemistry, the first Term.
2. Natural Theology, embracing Zoology and Mineralogy, the second Term.
3. Geology and Botany, the third Term.
4. Rhetoric, Oratory and English Literature, second Term.
5. Natural Philosophy, each Term.
6. Classical Literature or Antiquities, each Term.
7. Theology, each Term.
8. Political Economy, third Term.
9. Anatomy and Physiology, third Term.
10. Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, first and second terms.

In making the preceding statement, the simple aim has been to present a very brief and distinct view of the course; one which should contain only what is actually done, and be comprehended at a glance; to spread out the same over a greater space would be more easy than useful. It may be proper to add, that the system of instruction comprises six principal Departments; viz. Classical Languages and Literature,—Mathematics and Natural Philosophy,—Chemistry, Natural History and Anatomy,—Rhetoric and Oratory,—Intellectual, Moral and Political Philosophy,—Practical Theology and Personal Religion. Each of these departments is under the care of one responsible head, a permanent officer of the College. This officer does not give personally all the instruction in his department; but he oversees and directs the whole, and receives such aid from other officers as may be needed in conducting the several branches of study and instruction committed to his responsibility.

EXAMINATIONS.

1. Of all Classes, at the close of the first and second terms.
2. Of the Senior Class, four weeks preceding Commencement.
3. Of the three Lower classes, on the week preceding Commencement.

PUBLIC PERFORMANCES.

1. Exhibitions, in the second and third Terms.—2. Declamations on Monday evening preceding Commencement.—3. Commencement, on the fourth Wednesday of August.—On Tuesday, the day preceding Commencement, several public Orations or Addresses are usually delivered before Societies connected with the College, by distinguished Clergymen or Laymen.

VACATIONS.

1. Six weeks from the fourth Wednesday of August.—2. Two weeks from the second Wednesday of January.—3. Four weeks from the first Wednesday of May. Such students as are obliged by their circumstances to teach school in winter, are allowed to be absent for the purpose.

ADMISSION.

Preparatory Studies.—For admission to the Freshman Class, the following Studies are required; Adams' or Stoddard's Latin Grammar, Cicero's Select Orations, Leverett's Latin Tutor, Virgil, Sallust or Cæsar's Commentaries, Jacob's Greek Reader and the Four Gospels in Greek, or Græca Minora and the Greek Testament, Geography, English Grammer, and Arithmetic.—For any higher standing, the same, and also the part of the Course gone over by the Class, to which the candidate wishes admission.

Proper Time of Entrance.—Candidates for admission are examined on Tuesday, the day preceding Commencement, and on Wednesday, the first day of the following term.

Testimonials.—The candidate for admission to College, previously to his examination, must produce satisfactory evidence that he sustains a fair moral character, and that he has completed the part of the course preparatory to the standing for which he is offered. If he has been a member of another College, a certificate of regular dismission will also be required.

Age.—No one is admissible to the Freshman Class, until he has completed his fourteenth year; nor to an advanced standing, without a corresponding increase of age.

Payments.—The amount of the first Term Bill must be paid by each student on his admission; each subsequent Term Bill becomes due at the close of the term for which it is assessed. If the student enters in advance, five dollars and fifty cents per term, which is one half of the regular charge for Tuition, will be required, unless such standing shall have been obtained in another College. A bond in the sum of one hundred dollars for the payment of College Bills, must be given within one term after admission. The tuition of beneficiaries of Charitable Associations and other indigent pious youth preparing for the Christian Ministry is chiefly paid from the fund appropriated to that purpose. About thirty-five indigent students are gratuitously supplied with furniture; and various articles of clothing, furnished from time to time by the benevolent, are gratuitously distributed.

EXPENSES.

These will vary according to the circumstances and habits of the student. The following are the principal necessary expenses, exclusive of vacations.

Tuition $11,00 per term, . .	$33,00		$33,00
(The third term of the Sophomore year an additional charge is requisite for the tuition in French.)
Other College charges, $6,00 per term, . .	18,00		18,00
Board from $1,00 to $2,00 per week, . .	40,00	to	80,00
Fuel and light, from $9,00 to $11,00 per year, .	9,00	"	11,00
Washing, from 12 to 25 cts. per week, . .	5,00	"	8,00
Amount per year,	$105,00	to	$150,00

The student will find it advantageous to bring with him a mattress, with bedding, when it is practicable.—The expense for books is comparatively trifling, if the student, as he may generally do, purchases at second hand, and sells them when he has completed the study of them. There are also some minor expenses, which result from taxes voluntarily imposed by the classes or societies.—In other incidental expenses, if the parent or guardian furnishes money, or authorizes the contracting of debts, a student may be very extravagant. To guard against this, parents often deposit funds with some one approved of by the Faculty, who for a trifling charge will give particular attention to the pecuniary affairs of the student, and render an account of expenditures.—It is earnestly recommended to all parents and guardians not to authorize the obtaining of credit, and not to pay debts unauthorized.

LIBRARIES.

The College Library, containing about four thousand volumes, is accessible at regular times, to all the students, and the charge to each is according to the use he may make of the books. The three Libraries, belonging to the three Literary Societies, and containing each between two and three thousand volumes, are accessible to the members of the Societies according to regulations established by themselves. A Library and Museum have been commenced by the Society of Inquiry; to this Museum articles of curiosity are occasionally sent from the many graduates of this College, who have gone as Missionaries to foreign lands.

CABINET AND APPARATUS.

The Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus was recently enlarged by very valuable additions procured by Prof. Hovey, in England and France, and is amply sufficient for all the purposes of instruction. A good Mineralogical and Geological Cabinet is now possessed through the generosity of Prof. Hitchcock, and a considerable sum of money will be devoted to enlarge it.

EDIFICES.

There are four public Edifices. Three of these are divided into study-rooms and dormitories for the use of the students; another building designed for this purpose, it is hoped, will be speedily erected; at present, a part of the students obtain these accommodations in the village. The fourth Edifice contains the Chapel devoted to the public worship on the Sabbath and the daily devotions; separate Halls for the Library, Cabinet, and Philosophical Apparatus; and other rooms for Lectures and Recitations. For the latter purposes, the students enjoy the use of eight convenient rooms.

This Institution was established in 1821, and after many struggles was fully organized under a charter of Incorporation, in 1825. It has been hitherto sustained wholly by the avails of the regular tuition, and the generous exertions of private individuals.

The Examining Committee of the American Education Society in connection with the College attend to the examination of candidates for the aid of that Society on the last Tuesdays of December, March and June.
